

SUMMER LULLABY.

Inscribed to Mrs. DORA M. HANNA, of SHERIDAN, Wyo.
Words by EUDORA S. BUMSTEAD.

Andantino.

1. The sun has gone from the
2. The squir'l is dress'd in a
3. In hol - low tree is a.

shin - ing skies, Bye, ba - by, bye; The coat of gray, Bye, ba - by, bye; And co - zy nest, Bye, ba - by, bye; And dan - de - li - ons have closed their eyes, Bye, ba - by, this he wears, wheth - er night or day, Bye, ba - by,

 there, the squir - rel may sweet - ly rest, Bye, ba - by,

p bye; ——— And stars are light - ing their lamps to see If bye; ——— The rob - in sleeps in a robe of down, The bye; ——— And nest of rob - in is high o'er - head, Where

mf

babe and bir - dy and squir'l, all three, Are sound a - sleep as they breast of red, and the wings of brown, But ba - by sleeps in a leaf - y boughs of the ma - ple spread, But ba - by's nest is a mf mf

ought to be, Bye, ba - by, bye. ——— snow - white gown, Bye, ba - by, bye. ——— cra - dle bed, Bye, ba - by, bye. ———

p

Tw. 3 Tw.