She has built her con - sti - tu - tion, In - de - pend - ence, un - ion, states,
Here they give good re - cog - ni - tion To A - mer - i - cans who toil,
Six for light and seven for glo - ry, Are the stripes of white and red,

And her wars and rev - o - lu - tion O - pened wi - der free - dom's gates.
And a la - bor - er's con - di - tion Sings of our Co - lum - bian soil.
They were states who fought the To - ry, And from them the To - ry fled,

CHORUS. Waving the flag.
Our U - nit - ed States, Ne - bras - ka, Al - a - ba - ma, Ten - nes - see,....

Mis - sis - sip - pi or A - las - ka, All our land is grand and free.

NOTE.—Every state has its own version for the chorus. This is done in order to name the state in which the words are sung. National conventions and other assemblies are to use the version of the state in which they happen to meet. The version for every state in the union is given in our full edition.
