

THE SCOTCH LADDIE.

Words and Music
by Mrs. HARLAN J. NICHOLS.

Introduction.

Andante.

1 Man-y, man-y years a - go, to A - mer-i - ca's fair land, Came a
 2 Tri - als stared him in the face, as he came in search of work, To sup-
 3 Years rolled by and man-hood crowned, Laddie's brow with lau-rels fair, Fame and

Scottish lad and mother here to live, They had left their land of birth, and the port his loving mother growing old, A newsboy he be-came, with a fortune are his servants to the last, En - deared to ev'-ry heart, by Con espressione.

dear old father's grave, For A - mer - i - ca's free lib - er - ty and love.
 good and honest name, Nev - er sac - ri - fic - ing prin - ci - ple for gold.
 ties of kindest love, Car - ne - gie's name will live when life is past.

CHORUS.

Sopr. Not we'll nev - er for - get; the brave Scot - tish lad, Who has Alto.
Tenor. Not we'll nev - er for - get; the brave Scot - tish lad, Who has Bass.

rit f

helped so many hungry, thirsty, souls, Car - ne-gie's name will live, in helped so many hungry, thirsty, souls, Car - ne-gie's name will live, in

rit

Portamento Legato.

sweetest mem-o - ry, And be writ - ten a - bove in heaven's roll.

sweetest mem-o - ry, And be writ - ten a - bove in heaven's roll.