

LOVE'S TOKEN.

Words by N.K.GRIGGS.

Andante. molto con espressione

p

1. There bides a love-to-ken in rapt-ur-ing
2. And there's a love-to-ken in lan-guishing
3. And there's a love-to-ken in wel-com-ing

p

glance, With wing of the ar-row and point of the lance; And sigh, That seems but of sor-row tho sweet-heart is nigh; Yet word, And oft, by its ca-dence, the spir-it is stirred, As quick-ly it pierc-es the quiv-er-ing heart, That tells of con-tent-ment as per-fect and true, As leaf-lets and blade-lets of for-ests and leas, Are

p e - ven tho wound - ed yet cov - ets the smart. And that of the lil - y when la - den with dew. And rus - tled by mag - ic of whis - per - ing breeze. And

p

there's a love to - ken con - cealed in a smile, As there's a love to - ken in touch of the hand, That there's a love to - ken in gift of a rose, More con Pedale sweet as the sun - light in moun - tain de - file; And wa - kens en - chant - ment at Cu - pid's com - mand; And pre - cious and po - tent than tongue may dis - close; And oft - en it glad - dens the val - ley of gloom, With woos to the maid - en, so blush - ing and coy, Be - - - thought of its fra - grance will lin - ger and cheer, When bab - ble of brook - let and beau - ty of bloom. witch - ing con - fu - sion and in - no - cent joy. life and its flow - ers are with - ered and sear. } Love's to - ken is ev - er a jew - el most rare, — That none but the low - ly may grace - ful - ly mf colla voce wear; — And e'en tho the haught - y have bowed to its sway, — It nev - er yet spark - led on breast of dis - play. —