Music by
WILLIAM F. DANN

Moderato

1. O hear the na-tions call-ing us, And heark-en to their plea; This
2. The bat-tle ra-ges fierc-er-still, And mil-lions are the slain; For
3. The Stars and Stripes henceforth shall be A sign to ev-'ry land, That is no time to hes-i-tate, At stake is lib-er-ty! Our free-dom let us do our bit, Or blood is shed in vain. We those who fight for free-dom's cause Shall as our broth-ers stand. We might-y forc-es let us join, On land, in air, on sea; The pledge our serv-ice, wealth, and lives, To cause of lib-er-ty, Till ded-i-cate a-new our lives, In all hu-mil-i-ty, To Our might-y forc-es let us join, On land, in air, on sea; The We pledge our serv-ice, wealth, and lives, To cause of lib-er-ty, Till We ded-i-cate a-new our lives, In all hu-mil-i-ty, To whole world must be ren-dered safe For loved de-moc-ra-cy.

right with tri-umph shall be crowned, The world from strife set free.
larg-er serv-ice for man-kind, O God of Lib-er-ty!

CHORUS

Più mosso

Yes, we will ral - ly, ral - ly all our forc - es, Free - dom for all, for all our cry shall be; Be - neath the Stars and Stripes with all re - sourc - es Brave men will fight to make the na - tions free. All, all to - geth - er, loy - al, firm, u - nit - ed, Strong in our faith in God the Just on high,

O free-dom dear, to thee our hearts we've plighted, For thee we'll live, we will live, or we will die.
