

Telling the Stories of Childhood

Words and Music by
F. J. HAMPTON

Jack and of Jill, how they tum-bled down hill, and pret-ty lit-tle boy blue. _____
 once on a time, you were play-mate of mine, and ram-bled the wild-wood through. _____

CHORUS

Tell - ing the sto-ries of child - hood, sto - ries we all love to hear, _____

Of how we ram-bled thru wild - wood, no thought of care or of fear, _____

Games that we played in our child - hood, play mates that we hold dear, _____

Life's sweet-est mem'-ries of long long a - go, the sto-ries, we all love to hear. _____ hear. _____

1 2