

Lincoln City Libraries

TEEN BOOK

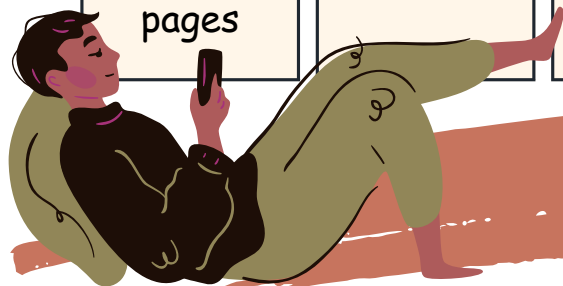

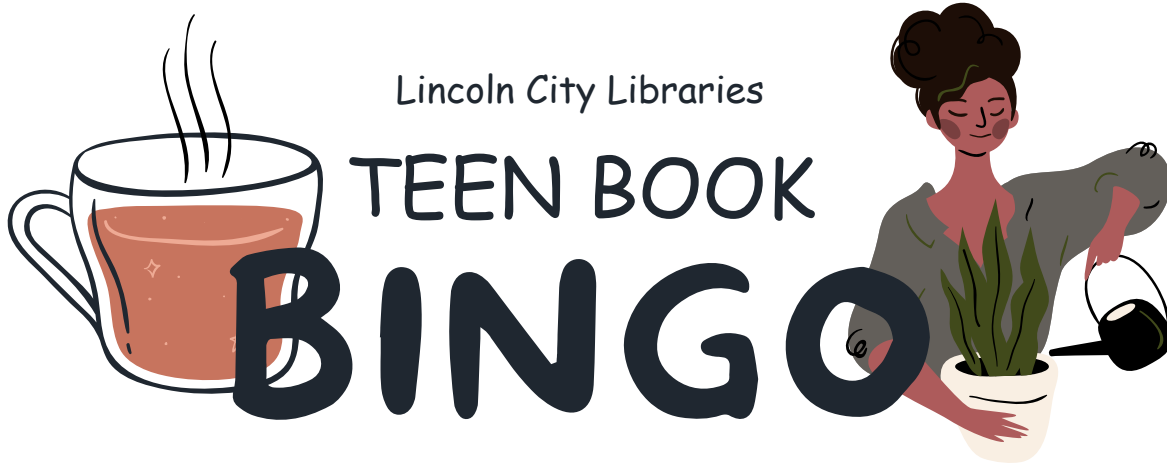

BINGO

Jan. 2-March 31

| | | | | |
|----------------------------------|---|---|---|---|
| main character is your exact age | book longer than 300 pages | number in the title | main character's first name starts with "J" | book with a purple cover |
| a DC graphic novel | book that someone else picked out for you | author's last name starts with "W" | book made into a movie | 2nd book in a trilogy |
| published the year you were born | read a picture book to a kid | free | features a non-human character | a Marvel graphic novel |
| set in the past | a book from the Adult Fiction section | a graphic novel with no superheroes | reminds you of The Hunger Games | someone goes to space |
| novel shorter than 150 pages | title starts with "W" | a character who speaks at least 2 languages | book from the children's section | book by an author who doesn't look like you |

Hey, Teens!

If you are resolved to read more, here's a chance to jumpstart your journey.

Stop by any Lincoln City Libraries location or print out a copy of the Book Bingo page at home and start reading. The game lasts from Tuesday, January 2, 2024 to Sunday, March 31, 2024, so you have plenty of time to read!

You can do across, down, diagonal or even coverall. Listening also counts, so check out Libby and Hoopla for books that fit the parameters.

Everyone wins, but some lucky people will win a bookstore or coffee shop gift card! Just turn in this completed form to any library location by March 31 for a chance to win!

Name: _____

Age: _____

Phone number: _____

